EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

A house of prayer for all people

THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

MARCH 14, 2021

11:00 A.M. - HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE I

Welcome! We're glad you've joined us for worship today. Trinity Cathedral strives to be a place where all can meet God, mature in Christ, and learn to minister in the world. We'd love to get to know you, and in addition to greeting you this morning, we encourage you to connect with us in any of the following ways:

Online: trinitysc.org

Email: info@trinitysc.org

Facebook: Trinity Episcopal Cathedral

Phone: (803) 771-7300

We hope that through today's worship you may know and experience the good news of God's offer of forgiveness and life in Christ.

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgiveth all our sins.

People His mercy endureth for ever.

The Celebrant and People kneel or remain standing

Celebrant God spake these words, and said: I am the Lord thy God who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Honor thy father and thy mother.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Thou shalt do no murder.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Thou shalt not commit adultery.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Thou shalt not steal.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

People Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Thou shalt not covet.
People Lord have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.
Minister Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.
All Almighty and most merciful father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws, we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, spare thou those who confess their faults, restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord; and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

Celebrant The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP 167

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.
Celebrant Let us pray.
 Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which giveth life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Lesson: Numbers 21.4-9

And they journeyed from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way. And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread. And the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died. Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the Lord, and against thee; pray unto the Lord, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live. And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107

Confitemini Domino

BCP 746

The Psalm will be read responsively, dividing at the half verse

O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is gracious, *
and his mercy endureth for ever.

Let them give thanks whom the LORD hath redeemed, *
and delivered from the hand of the enemy;

And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west; *
from the north, and from the south.

Foolish men are plagued for their offence, *
and because of their wickedness.
 Their soul abhorred all manner of meat, *
and they were even hard at death's door.
 So when they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, *
he delivered them out of their distress.
 He sent his word, and healed them; *
and they were saved from their destruction.
 O that men would therefore praise the LORD for his goodness; *
and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!
 That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving, *
and tell out his works with gladness!

Second Lesson: Ephesians 2.1-10

And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

Gospel: John 3.14-21

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

THE SERMON

The Very Reverend Dane Boston

Please stand as you are able

*All I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
and of all things visible and invisible;
And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation
came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary,
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory,
to judge both the quick and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.
And I believe in the Holy Ghost the Lord, and Giver of Life,
who proceedeth from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified;
who spake by the Prophets.
And I believe one holy Catholic and Apostolic Church;
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins;
and I look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

THE HOLY COMMUNION

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING - Prayer I

BCP 333

You are invited to stand throughout the Eucharistic Prayer.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up unto the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

Celebrant It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God. Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was in every way tempted as we are, yet did not sin; by whose grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer unto ourselves, but unto him who died for us and rose again. Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

“Holy, holy, holy, Lord”

Sanctus

Hymnal S114
(please see page 13)

The Celebrant continues

All glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that thou, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there, by his one oblation of himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink ye all of this; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, according to the institution of thy dearly beloved Son our Savior Jesus Christ, we, thy humble servants, do celebrate and make here before thy divine Majesty, with these thy holy gifts, which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; rendering unto thee most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us; and, of thy almighty goodness, vouchsafe to bless and sanctify, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, these thy gifts and creatures of bread and wine; that we, receiving them according to thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ’s holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we, and all thy whole Church, may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion.

And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee that we, and all others who shall be partakers of this Holy Communion, may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, and made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him.

And although we are unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses, through Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

*All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread and says Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

PRAYER OF HUMBLE ACCESS

BCP 337

All We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE SOLEMN PRAYER OVER THE PEOPLE

Celebrant Bow down before the Lord.

The people kneel as they are able.

A Note on our Liturgies in Lent

We Episcopalians are blessed with an embarrassment of riches when it comes to our worship life. That statement isn't just denominational chauvinism! Our Anglican heritage includes some of the most beautiful, meaningful, and well-loved poetry in the English language—and it's all available to us right there in The Book of Common Prayer, the Coverdale Psalter, and the Authorized Version (commonly called the King James Version) of the Bible.

Careful listeners to our liturgy will notice some changes this Lent. Of course we will omit the ancient praise shout "Alleluia," an old custom that brings a somewhat more somber tone to this penitential season. But you may also notice the proliferation of words like "thee" and "thou" in our services. In the weeks ahead, we are utilizing Rite I in the Prayer Book, which preserves for our use some of the oldest forms of worship used by Anglican Christians since the time of the English Reformation. Indeed the Great Litany, with which we begin our liturgy on the First Sunday in Lent, is the oldest authorized liturgy ever produced in English. Our spiritual foremothers and fathers have been praying with these words since 1547. And in this holy season, as the Church around the world prepares to celebrate the Paschal mystery at the very heart of our faith, we lift our voices in union with Episcopalians through the centuries who have found meaning, inspiration, and comfort in these old words.

Of course, the traditional language used in this season will delight some and annoy others. We are too big and diverse a community to please everyone all the time! But please keep in mind that these changes are temporary—or, to be more accurate, seasonal. The Book of Common Prayer 1979 presents us with such a rich array of options in our worship, and Trinity Cathedral seeks to utilize all of them in the course of the Church Year. We step into something unfamiliar and strange at one moment, and then go back into something well-worn and well-loved the next. I pray that you and your family will receive these changes as opportunities to listen more attentively and to live more fully into our deep heritage, remembering that other changes will come in Holy Week and Eastertide.

May we all, in these coming days of prayer and penance, find ourselves drawn nearer to God who binds his Church together in every time and place—in every tongue and people and nation—to the praise and glory of his holy Name. "We beseech thee to hear us, Good Lord!"

 - Lenten Series: Trinity and the Diocesan staff offer a series of brief daily meditations reflecting on our relationship with Christ. The meditations are based on Rooted in Love: Lent Reflections on Life in Christ, and are posted at trinitysc.org/rootedinlove each weekday.
 - Be the Bridge 101: This weekly study will help us to pursue the work of racial reconciliation and anti-racism as we explore what it means to be White in America. Sun, Mon, and Tue options are available. For Zoom credentials, contact Canon Del Priore (dorian@trinitysc.org).
 - Musical Offerings: Choral Evensong is offered Sun, Tue and Wed, and Choral Compline on Thu. All are live streamed; see the weekly calendar (next page) for details.
- Mon, Mar 15, 9:15am: DHC Board Meeting, Satterlee Hall or dial-in. To register, please visit trinitysc.org/dhcmarch. If you have any questions, contact Lynn Evans (lynnevens746@gmail.com).
- Weekday worship: Morning Prayer (7 am) and Evening Prayer (8 pm) are streamed every weekday on Facebook (facebook.com/trinitycathedralsc) and our website (trinitysc.org/live). Once aired, the services are available at trinitysc.org/worship/sermons.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Holy Week and Easter: There are many opportunities for worship, formation, and family, both in-person and live-streamed. For the complete service schedule and additional information, please visit trinitysc.org/holyweek2021.
- Pictorial Directory Update: If you are pictured in the directory and haven't picked up a free copy yet, or to purchase a copy ($4), you may come to the first floor of the Admin Building Mon - Fri, 9 am - 5 pm and see Pam Tessier. To enter, use the door located just to the left of Keenan Chapel.
- Financial Peace University (meets virtually): leave money-related stress behind! Class starts Tue, Mar 23, at 6:30 pm. Sign up at fpu.com/1133038. Contact Doug Steimle (803.351.3878; dsteimle85@gmail.com) or David Danforth (803.917.5556; drd1949@hotmail.com).
- Thanks to all who continue to support Trinity financially during this time. For information about ways to submit your offering, visit trinitysc.org/give/ways-to-give. If you need assistance, please contact Ryan Headley (803.461.7302).

COMING SOON
